TV Ears named to Inc. 5,000 list

- Manufacturer of doctor-recommended TV listening solutions achieved 237-plus percent growth since 2005 -

SAN DIEGO – DATE, 2009 – TV Ears, a manufacturer of doctor-recommended TV listening solutions that have helped more than 500,000 people, was named to Inc. Magazine's 2009 "Inc. 5,000" list for the second straight year.

The company is ranked 1,343 after achieving a more than 237 percent growth since 2005, with its success stemming from their expansion into the retail market.

"We're extremely honored to be included in this year's list and recognized along with other distinguished, successful companies," said George Dennis, CEO of TV Ears. "TV Ears offers widely used products for individuals who have difficulty hearing the television clearly, and we've successfully expanded into retail stores including Costco, RadioShack, Target.com and QVC to reach a larger audience."

As explained on the publication's Web site, The Inc. 5,000 recipients are ranked according to percentage of revenue growth from 2005 through 2008. To be eligible for consideration, companies must have been founded and generating revenue by the first week of 2005, and therefore able to demonstrate four full calendar years of sales. Revenue must have been at least $200,000 in 2005 and $2 million in 2008. Additionally, firms applying must be U.S.-based, privately held, and not subsidiaries or divisions of other companies as of December 31, 2008.
